

Nov, 1987

- 2) see narrative
- 3) Upper low 100 miles west of L.A., w/SE flow @ all levels of unstable moist air. Thunderstorms beginning late evening.
- 4) Upper low 200 mi SW of L.A. moving slowly East
Thunderstorms over San Gabriel Valley around sunset, only a little thunder here
- 5) Funnel Cloud / Waterspout San W of LAX @ 1015
An intense line of Thunderstorms moving along coastal waters between Long Beach + Oxnard around 1300.
Sp. Marine Statement - Warning for Coastal areas
Upper low moving NE to near Bakersfield by evening
Very heavy rain in various parts of S. Cal. - esp. San Diego, Death Valley region, and Las Vegas. All roads to D, U by closed
Some large hail in spots; Light winds, mostly 1/2-mid showers here.
Snow @ most ski resorts in S. Calif., snow level 6-7000
- 9) Ridge bldg over Calif.
- 13) Strong polar trough digging SE into Nevada
Cold front through N. Calif w/ high pressure building behind front.
Strong wind advisory (W-NW) for N. deserts + mtns
- 20) Weak cold front passing thru evening, with only some clouds
T storm Santa Maria midday.