

Feb 1989

- 1) Wind fell for mtns. des., + Owens Valley as low forms over Utah
High temp yesterday at Valentine NE 70°, today -2°
" " Russell KS 84°, today low 20s
1/2 foot of snow today at Seattle with temp in teens, high at Col Bank -28
1075mb surface high over AK/Yukon border today with ridge into middle of U.S. Arctic air driving into KS + OK very shallow -
Denver in teens but higher hills to west in 40s
- 2) Wind fell still inland; Str High pressure + cold still Alaska to W. Canada
Through Cal. U.S. to Texas w/low Pr. systems moving Thru Pac NW to Nev. + New Mex.
-40s in Montana, teens all day in Seattle. High of -20 @ Billings
Wind chills -30 to -50 @ Portland, Snow in hills around San Fran
- 3) Large upper low now off of Oregon/Wash coast expected to slowly drift SSE and into Southern Nevada by the 5th, bringing more rain + colder air to So Cal.
Today's record low highs - 14 in Portland + lowest higher ever
Denver -5 max. Wislambert low -52F.
- 4) Blizzard Warning for mtns above 6000ft today, High Wind Warning for mtns + No. Desert.
- 5) Freeze Warning tonight for inland valleys; ^{Light} Snow fell today in 1000 Oaks, Newbury Park, Simi Valley, + Malibu Canyon; Heavier Snow in Redlands, San Berdoe area.
Hi of 39 @ Berkeley lowest Feb. Higher ever
- 7) Strong cold off-shore flow continues at surface, but upper low SW of LA. causing high clouds, thickening PM.
- 8) Upper low drifting north along coast, NE winds continue
Snow for most of West and North SFU, one to two inches. Heavier in hills above Northridge + Santa Clarita.
Rain here after snow ended (before sunrise), so snow cover did not last long. Last significant snow in Woodland Hills was on Jan. 21, 1962, when a few inches fell early that AM.
Other snow years here - Jan. 1957, Jan 1949, Jan. 1932 → cont.